KlompelOMPE – Knitting for little sweethearts

Take a look at Norway's most sold non-fiction title in 2015. Here you find more than 60 patterns of the beautiful knitwear from KlompelOMPE. The popular "Loudmouthcap" is of course included, together with patterns for sweaters, trouser suits, gloves and scarfs — garments for all seasons of the year. Most garments are for boys and girls from one to six years old, but also for babies and grownups. Many of the patterns are designed both for mother and child. Find your own favorites and combine colours that match. The patterns are marked with different degrees of difficulty: 1, 2 or 3. You will find easy and quick projects and more challenging stuff. All patterns have suggestions for delicate colour combinations and for specific wool qualities.

www.klompelompe.no is a popular blog and a homepage where both professional yarn shops and ordinary customers from all of the world find knitting patterns they can order online.

Torunn Steinsland, Hanne A. Hjelmås

KlompelOMPE began as a good idea on a "knitting night" in 2012. They both had children in preschool and grade school, and were wanting patterns for hats that fit well that were also nice to look at. It was especially hard to find finished goods and knitting patterns for boys. Thus, Kjekkaslua came into existence, which would ultimately prove to be their trademark, eventually becoming a whole little collection.

Their goal is to design great knitting patterns for children and adults, patterns for garments that fit well, are nice to wear and can be worn for a long time.

The books contains knitting patterns for boys and girls from ages one to six, but also for infants and adults. Many of the patterns are designed for both baby and mom. Find your favorites and combine colors that go well together.

The KLOMPELOMPE-series have reached a total print run of 230 000 copies (divided on four titles).
