

Kirsi Máret Paltto

That for which there were no words

That for which there were no words reflects on emotions that have settled in the body and plague the person even if the difficult thing is long gone and forgotten. The poems follow the main character who at first has no words for his feelings and what he has experienced, but who eventually learns to express the difficult thing, and also to process the difficult thing.

ABC-Company E-skuvla AS

Original Title: Dat masa eai lean sánit

Foreign rights:

ABC-Company E-skuvla AS

Kirsi Máret Paltto

Kirsi Máret Paltto (b. 1974) is an author from Fierranjohka, Sápmi, Finland but she has been living most of her life in Norway, Sweden and Spain. This is her second book. She is also an artist and photographs of her artwork are used as illustrations for the book.

