

Sáve Goes Ptarmigan Trapping

Lise Nilsdatter Siri & Annelene Hætta Eira • Hege Terese Fjæra (ill.)

Sáve Goes Ptarmigan Trapping is Lise and Annelene's debut book. This children's book is an interactive book which includes songs, joiks, and ptarmigan sounds.

Sámi traditional activities and the two authors' appreciation for the land form the basis for this book's topic. This book is the first title in the Sáve series. Hege Teresa Fjæra has drawn the illustrations for the book, and this is the second book she has illustrated for the publisher.

"Sáve is finally with Grandpa on a ptarmigan trapping trip.

In the wood they see many ptarmigan tracks, and there they set up twig fences for the ptarmigan traps.

The next morning, they notice a cunning animal sneaking around the woods.

They really need to rush to reach the ptarmigan traps, but who will get there first?"
