The ENPO Series: A New Nordic Crime Series

SCAR TISSUE - WOLF'S WINTER - SURFACE WATER - COMA - FUNERAL

A modern Scandinavian psychological serial-killer thriller, with an investigative partnership and escalating threats familiar to readers of The Chestnut Man by Søren Sveistrup.

Cold landscapes, psychologically complex murders, damaged investigators and morally uncomfortable investigations.

Rooma Virak, 36, a Norwegian investigator, psychologically minded and fiercely committed to justice, is recruited into a secretive Nordic police unit, ENPO, Enhet for Nordiske Politioperasjoner, and paired with a Danish investigator, Brian Chort, 44. He is charismatic and exceptionally skilled at reading people, but after years inside ENPO has begun to lose faith in the work.

Each case brings Rooma and Brian closer — and further away from the people they thought they were. In this series, the investigators themselves are the long-form mystery. As their cases get darker, their methods become more dangerous and everything becomes personal.

The first chapters of book 1 and 2 are available.

Anders Moe: The ENPO Series

Book 1, Scar Tissue (Manuscript summer 2027)
Can Rooma identify a killer who never commits his own crimes?
Rooma Virak's first assignment with ENPO begins in Oslo and with the brutal assault of a young woman who has been stalked for months. When the police finally arrest the killer, Rooma realises they have caught the wrong man.
This is Rooma's first descent into the kind of darkness she joined the police to fight. She comes out damaged, but now has absolute trust in her partner. Brian Chort comes out with something more dangerous: Brian wants Rooma closer.

Book 2, Wolf's Winter (Manuscript summer 2028)
Can Rooma uncover the truth buried inside a family secret twenty years old?
A boy nobody knows has died alone in the endless winter forest of the Finnmark. The man blamed for his death has spent twenty years being accused of killing a girl who turns out was actually his own daughter.
Rooma and Brian are sent into an isolated community of family secrets, old accusations, violence, superstition and distrust of outsiders.

Book 3, Surface Water (Manuscript summer 2029)
Can Rooma stop a fourth murder when nobody can connect the first three?
Outside Helsinki, a missing man is found dead in a deep lake. But divers discover something else: a human hand belonging to a different victim. The second victim was killed approximately a year earlier. Then a third person is murdered and dumped in the same lake. The deaths form an impossible pattern.

Book 4, Coma (Manuscript summer 2030)
Can Rooma have a life with Brian outside ENPO - before consequences catch up?
Rooma and Brian are suspended when ENPO discovers their relationship. They retreat to Iceland but there they find an injured young photographer in a coma. The case soon becomes personal. Brian kills a man who threatens his family and runs. Rooma is left behind — precisely as she realizes that she does not want to be alone.

Book 5, Funeral (Manuscript summer 2031)
Can Rooma find Brian before ENPO - and solve a murder conspiracy?
Rooma is back inside ENPO. Brian Chort is wanted for murder. She has a new partner: the forensic investigator Heiden. Their first case begins with the body of an elderly man with a cryptic message inside his stomach. Meanwhile, ENPO is looking for Brian, and Rooma must decide whether to find him first.
