POP

POP is a story about pop music and the music industry – a contemporary cultural history that spans 200 years, from the industrial revolution to the digital age. It's a story about the creators of pop music, and their ideas; professionals, employees, business people, colleagues, rivals, craftsmen, artists, stars, icons; who have written, produced, sung, played and sold songs that have affected people all over the world.

Audun Molde

Audun Molde was born in Bergen, Norway and has written several books about music.
