

Sercan Leylek

The Man and the Wall

A young Jewish girl, Anna Sophie, is magically caught inside a brick wall during World War II, while German soldiers are raiding the library where she works. Just as magically, her presence in the wall is discovered by a young Muslim immigrant, seventy years later. The wall in this story can be found in real-life central Oslo, next to the National Library where Anna Sophie worked. Is The Man and the Wall fantastic realism, or is it realistic fantasy? Whatever it might be, the story of Anna Sophie and Yakamoz keeps you captured till The End.

Sirkel Forlag 2017
176 pages
Original title: Mannen og muren
ISBN: 9788293534105

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Sirkel Forlag
Pb 78 Hovseter
0705 Oslo
Norway
kontakt@sirkelforlag.no
sirkelforlag.no

RIGHTS SOLD TO

Turkey (Title: Duvar ve Adam)
Published in Turkey by Bilgi Publishing House
(Bilgi Yayınevi)

AWARDS

Supported by the Cultural Fund of Norway
(2017)

Sercan Leylek

Sercan Leylek was born in Izmir, Turkey, and has lived in Oslo, Norway since 2009. He is known in Turkey for his science fiction novels Cydonia (2012) and Piri Reis ve Nostradamus (2015).

SIRKEL  FORLAG

Sirkel Forlag

sirkelforlag.no