

Ena Forlag 2018
41 pages
Original title: Hakk O Ve
ISBN: 9788241917424

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Vigmostad & Bjørke
Elisabeth Sheehy
Editor/ Rights Manager
St Olavs gate 12
NO-0165 Oslo
elisabeth.sheehy@vigmostadbjorke.no

OTHER TITLES

Pie Noon
Down the Tubes

Ragnar Aalbu

Knock On Wood

Knock On Wood is a picture book about a woodpecker who gets a headache from all his drumming. There is no other way out than to re-train. This in turn leads to an existential crisis: What will a Woodpecker do when he can no longer do what he does best?

Knock On Wood is an original and fun story by an author who has a group of readers and fans enjoying his minimalistic and humorous style and devious stories. The absurd story about the woodpecker is complimented nicely by Aalbu's perfectly clean illustrations.

With its surplus of funny details both children and adults will enjoy this book.

*Everyone should read Ragnar Aalbu's books.
Philosophy of life and awareness that a lot of people will consider relevant...*

- Anne Cathrine Straume, NRK Radio.

Ragnar Aalbu

Ragnar Aalbu (b. 1966) is a picture book author and illustrator, and has received multiple awards for his minimalist, stylised illustrations, including the Department of Culture's First Children's Book Award in 2005.

Aalbu is featured in Martin Salisbury's book PLAY PEN – New Children's Book Illustration (2007), and in the Gestalten Verlag title Little Big Books – Illustrations for Children's Picture Books (2012).

Vigmostad & Bjørke – Ena forlag