Gro Dahle

Double duvet

Solar flares have caused a power cut, and a mother and her teenage son are sequestered in a flat. The son barely speaks, and the mother has something to hide. In the texts she writes she tries to get closer to her son. But what will happen when they have to wash in the same little pond every day, when they run out of food and when they freeze?

Double Duvet is a loaded and exciting novel about what we keep to ourselves.

Gro Dahle

Gro Dahle (b. 1962) writes for both children and adults. As a children's book writer she is known for her poetic books on themes that are often given little attention. Her poetry collections Riddles of Rain and A Hundred Thousand Hours have solid places in the canon of modern Norwegian poetry. She has also published novels and short stories.
