The dream lenses

The Dream Lenses takes place in the near future, where we meet an estate agent in Stavanger, about to engage in a pilot project: The agency he is working for is to begin offering virtual viewings of properties using so-called dream lenses.

Dream lenses are a technology that, in short, involve wearing a pair of lenses before sleep, allowing the user to buy "dreams" in which they can take part. A form of virtual reality where you can literally live your dreams.
