Iselin Hafselv

Tinde handknits

The best thing about knitting your own garments, is that you can make them just the way you want them. Iselin is the designer behind the brand Tinde and has designed her own colors by knitting with several strands at once, either in the same quality or by blending different qualities in combination with exciting knitting textures.

You get everything from lovely, classic jackets and vests, hats and pullovers to ponchos and short and long sweaters.

Iselin Hafselv

Designer Iselin Hafselv was educated at SHKS in Oslo. She best known as the founder of the clothing line TINDE, collections of exclusive knitwear with a relaxed elegance. This is her first knitting book.
