Bo Bear Does Some Baking

Bo Bear and his best friend Bo are to bake saffron buns for the nursery school. Baking is great fun. The dough looks ready, but the adults are so slow. Fortunately, Brillebjørn knows how to go about it.

Bo Bear is a popular character on the National Children's TV station. He lives together with his mothers in a real wooden house. He loves to leap around and play with his friends, and he gets up to an awful lot of strange things. Everyday stories one can easily identify with, for readers young and old.
