Juvvá Pittja

really don't know

Juvva Pittja's debut work of fiction lets the reader into the poetic world of a young Saami man, in which he reflects on life, his dreams and the difficulties faced by many young Saami adults today, required as they are to navigate with equal facility both in the Saami world as well as in that of the majority culture.

Juvvá Pittja

Juvva Pittja (1989) was born and raised as part of a reindeer-herding family in Swedish Lappland. In addition, he has trained as an artist and the poems are illustrated with author's own artwork.
