Miraculously, Sonja, Bjørnar and Lotta escapes from Trym and the Vikings. In the turmoil, they are separated from Espen and the trolls. So, the three of them continue their journey to the Mountain people, alone. When they arrive at the village, the Mountain people are very suspicious towards them. But a surprising turn of events changes everything and soon it becomes evident to Sonja that the Mountain people are both friendly and have a very practical approach to magic. But she also discovers that the leader of the Mountain People, Ravnda, is concealing a very dark secret ...
