

Solum Bokvennen 2019
298 pages
Original title: En sommer med Nedreaas
ISBN: 9788256021338

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Solum Bokvennen
Universitetsgaten 14
0164 Oslo

thea@solumbokvennen.no

Grethe Fatima Syéd

A Summer with Nedreaas

Torborg Nedreaas (1906–1987) was a leftwing radical with a zest for life. She was a fearless defender of vulnerable groups and individuals and an acute observer who wrote about loneliness and vulnerability. Nedreaas had a sharp pen and was a witty critic of double standards and hypocrisy. In this book we are taken on a voyage into Nedreaas' dramatic life and authorship, guided enthusiastically by Grethe Fatima Syéd.

A Summer With Nedreaas is a Norwegian prolongation of the popular French radio-series A Summer With ...

Grethe Fatima Syéd's book about Torborg Nedreaas is the right choice for rainy summer days.

- NRK

Grethe Fatima Syéd

Grethe Fatima Syéd (b. 1968) an author and translator. She has written several non-fiction books and a novel and is an experienced lecturer and speaker. Her writings have been published in several of Norway's leading newspapers and journals, including Vinduet, Edda, BLA, Klassekampen, Morgenbladet, Dag og Tid and Vårt Land.

Solum Bokvennen

www.solumbokvennen.no/