

Vigmostad Bjørke 2021
314 pages
Original title: Rasende binne
ISBN: 9788241952234

 NORLA's Selected Titles

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Northern Stories AS Agent: Astrid Dalaker
astrid@northernstories.no
Phone +47 99 69 19 50

RIGHTS SOLD TO

See Updated Rights here

AWARDS

Nominated for The Riverton Award (2016)
The Mauritz Hansen Award (2016)

OTHER TITLES

Stars over, Darkness Below (2016)
Barefoot over the Ice (2018)

Ingebjørg Berg Holm

Raging Bear

A body lies in the frozen wastes on Svalbard, and slowly becomes part of the landscape, as it is blanketed in snow. It will lie preserved here until spring, when it will then thaw, decay, and feed the animals and the plants until snow falls again.

The climate scientist Njål was married to Sol, a vicar, for a long time. They wanted children, but only had miscarriages. Njål leaves her for Nina, his student at the Center for Climate Change. They have a daughter, Lotta, before their relationship breaks down.

Nina sues Njål for joint custody of Lotta. He left her in the throes of prolonged postpartum depression, while he made Nina sign him as the main custodian. Now, feeling better, she wants Lotta at least half of the time. Njål and Nina both keeps secrets about the dramatic events leading to their breakup, secrets that can harm them both in their pursue of custody.

The couple are also rivals for research credit and a seat in an important climate expedition to Svalbard. Sol watches them, from afar, envious stalking Njål and his child as well as mourning her loss.

Ingebjørg Berg Holm's Raging Bear is an unusual, subdued and subtle thriller. But it is no less suspensfull for that reason.

- NRK

Intense psychological thriller

- Bergens Tidende

The excitement in this book is mostly on a psychological level... in a crescendo of action and blizzards, Arctic cold and Polar Bears.

- Nettavisen

The author is a good narrator... The story unfolds dramatically, and the tension only continues to rise all the way to the book's final page.

- Dagen

Ingebjørg Berg Holm

Northern Stories

www.northernstories.no

Ingebjørg Berg Holm (b. 1980) was nominated for the prestigious Riverton Prize for her debut thriller Stars Over, Darkness below in 2016. She also won the crime debutant award (The Maurits Hansen Prize) for this critically acclaimed debut thriller. Her second historical thriller Barefoot over the Ice was published in 2018. Raging Bear is her third thriller and will be published January 2021. In addition to being an author Ingebjørg Berg Holm is also an interior architect with a master's degree from the Bergen Academy of the Arts. She lives in Bergen with her husband and two children.

Northern Stories

www.northernstories.no