The Broccoli gang Operation stinky beetle

In the school kitchen, the cruel lady turnip rules. She forces the children to eat one horrible meal after another. The children can not stand more nauseous days. The time has come for revenge.

What could work better than giving her the taste of her own medicine.

The gang starts an insane plan.

Meet Jack, Julia, Miss Turnip, some really cool beetles and a lot of broccoli. Fasten your seat belts. This is going wild.

The book is lively illustrated by Christina Winther. Every lookup is illustrated.

Hege Enersen Bjerkelien

Hege was born in 1971 in Hemsedal, and grew up in Oslo. After working for 20 years as a professional rider, she switched to working with children and young people in primary school.

Hege is particularly concerned about the upbringing of children, and believes that all children deserve a childhood full of good stories.

With the world's most important audience, she puts a lot of hard work into her books, choosing only the best of editors and illustrators.

Her first book, "Savage street" , was therefore acquired by The Norwegian Art Council.

"The Broccoli gang" - Operation stinky beetle is her second book. Four other books in this series is written, and the next one - "Terrified" is being published June 2021.
