Suzann Pettersen

Tutta No Guts No Glory

Suzann "Tutta" Pettersen has been leading the field in one of the World's largest individual sports for 20 years. In Solheim Cup in 2019 she made the deciding put for Europe against USA and ended her career with a great comeback. She had just become a mother, and it had been over 20 months since she last prepared for and played a great tournament. Still, she was again the best when it mattered the most. Best under maximum pressure.

In the course of her Golfing Career, Suzann Pettersen achieved 15 individual victories in the LPGA-tour, and two Major titles. She was ranked in the top ten (mostly in the top 5) of the World ranking of Golf for 436 weeks and has represented Europe nine times in Solheim Cup. In 2020 she received The Honorary Award at the Norwegian Athletics Gala, and she is a lifetime ambassador for NIKE.

In 2012 she played her very best Golf and was at the height of her career. She was ranked second in the World ranking and was just about to take the final step up to the top. Instead, she was once again injured, an injury that could have stopped her from playing professional Golf. And still she managed to do a comeback. What is it that makes her so mentally strong that she could return to the top again and again, and perform on a high level in Golf for 20 years?

In this book the extreme winner tells the stories about the games on an international top level, and life off the Golf course.

Suzann Pettersen

Suzann "Tutta" Pettersen (b. 1981) is from Oslo, Norway. She stopped playing golf in 2019, after a long career as a top ranked world player. Pettersen has been praised for her powerful psychological mindset that could push her through the barriers she met, and make her one of the strongest players in her game.
