Unloved

Sofia is from Oslo, the child of Pakistani parents. She often has too little money and spends too much time on Tinder. Sofia is awarded a grant to make photographic art but suspects she only got it because she's brown. When her father falls seriously ill, she starts to take pictures of him. And when an old flame comes to town, Sofia's yearning for love intensifies. A passionate affair ensues.

Unloved is driven by painful comedy and characters with an instinct for survival.
