Heidi Linde

Man's Best Friend

Olivia wants to be there for Cornelia when she's having a tough time. But what should you do to prove that you're the absolute best friend in the whole wide world? Give your dog away? Shave your hair off? Expose yourself to infection (on purpose!)? Or do you simply have to overcome your greatest fear?

A wise, relatable, heartwarming and fun story from one of our most popular authors.

The first book in the series, The Different Lives of Olivia, was nominated for ARK's children's book prize and was very well received by reviewers.

Heidi Linde

Heidi Linde (born 1973) is a genuinely talented writer, and writes a warm, yet vivid prose about characters that will touch your heart.

She has been a rising star since her debut novel Under the Table (2002) made it to the main selection in Norway's major book club, but her big breakthrough came with her third novel, Yes, We Can! (2011).

She is also one of few plot driven women writers to traverse the gender gap; the reviewers obviously see her as a writer for both men and women (and compare her to giants like Nick Hornby and Jonathan Frantzen).
