Johnny 777 - Mission 4: Bergen

Under the code name Johnny 777, John works as an agent for the secret organisation EHO, and is sent on mad-cap missions all over the world along with the mysterious Ninja Princess.

EHO has just received information about a mysterious Halloween celebration on a deserted island off the coast of Bergen. When the electric power goes out and one child after the other disappears, there are only two people around who can sort it out. The Ninja Princess draws her Katana sword and Johnny 777 puts on his sunglasses even though it is dark.

Johnny 777 Mission 4: Bergen is the fourth book in Sortland's and Selnes' critically acclaimed bestseller

Bjørn Sortland and Ketil Selnes (ill.)

Bjørn Sortland (b. 1968) is educated at The Academy of Writing in Bergen and debuted as a writer in 1992. He has published a number of award-winning books for children, youth and adults. He is known especially for the best-selling series The Art Detectives. Sortland is currently a professor at The Norwegian Institute for Children's Books.

Ketil Selnes (b. 1974) is educated as a graphic designer from the School for Graphic Design (now Kristiana University College). He also has a bachelor's degree in illustration from Falmouth College of Arts in Cornwall, UK. Selnes has illustrated for Aftenposten Junior and illustrated a number of children's books.
