The ashlads and the eating contest

This is a book about trolls, bedtimes stories, and cheese sandwiches! It is a book that grownups kan read loud, and children can read quiet. No trolls were harmed while we were making this book.
We promise!

Therese G. Eide

Therese G. Eide had 3 children in a time period of 21 months. Life was turned upside down, and she did as any modern mother would do. She started blogging about it. Using stylish drawing, not pictures.
