The World's Worst Ski Trip

Join Kent and Ruben on a ski trip!

Kent has gone along with Ruben and his family to their cabin. The OBLIGATORY SKI TRIP awaits them there, and Ruben and Kent naturally do everything they can to avoid it.

Kent hates ski TRIPS, even more than Ruben. Kent is more the ski JUMPS type of guy. Or the ZOOMING DOWNHILL AT A THOUSAND MILES AN HOUR ON ONE SKI type. Or the TRYING TO DO A BACKFLIP BUT MISSING THE JUMP AND INSTEAD CRASHING STRAIGHT INTO A TREE AND BREAKING THE SKIS type. Not the boring walk-along-on-skis type.

They resort to all sorts of tricks to avoid going along, but when Ruben's little sister gets lost in the mountains, they are forced to strap on their skis and help with the search.

The latest book in the World's Worst series! Lots of laughs, fun illustrations, and days that seldom go according to plan make the World's Worst books a light, entertaining and hysterically funny reading experience.

Marius Horn Molaug and Kristoffer Kjølbjerg (ill.)

Marius Molaug (b. 1976) works as editor of the Norwegian edition of Donald Duck. He is a member of the creative community Dongery.

Molaug studied at Westerdals Oslo School of Arts, Communication and Technology, and during his time there joined the comics and art collective Dongery. He has since made contributions to all of the collective's fanzine releases.

Once he had completed his education, Molaug began working as a writer for NRK's Hallo i uken. In 2003 he joined the editorial staff of Egmont, becoming the editor of Donald Duck & Co. in 2009. Molaug's first children's book, The World's Worst Headmaster, came out in 2014.

Kristoffer Kjølbjerg (b. 1980) is a prize-winning illustrator and graphic designer. He is a member of the creative community Dongery.
