Andrea Bræin Hovig

This is Ellen's book

A novel that goes straight to the heart.

Ellen, a shy 13-year-old, has to spend the summer with her father at his cottage. It will be the summer where she not only learns that her father is mentally ill, but that she has an older sister she never knew about. One day the sister comes to stay with them, and suddenly the world is no longer the same.

This is Ellen's book is a powerful book about families, betrayal, loneliness and finding yourself when everything around you collapses.
