Gunnar's book of records

The world's most secret book of records

Gunnar has a book. A book packed full of records where he writes about Sivert, the world's best friend, about Sivert's dad, who must be the most cheerful man on the planet, and about Dad, who lies on the couch and is the saddest man Gunnar knows. And about Vilde, who has the world's loveliest smile.

Gunnar does not write about how a heart can just stop beating, and he does not write about Mum. He does not show the book to anyone. No one gets to read Gunnar's book of records.
