

Gyldendal forlag 2007
142 pages
Original title: Cyprianus
ISBN: 9788205370

FOREIGN RIGHTS

---

myriam@forlagshusetivestfold.no

Myriam H. Bjerkli

Cyprianus

There are stories and beliefs about a black book so magical, so frightening, and so secret that only the devil and his conspirators had access to its evil wisdom and terrifying powers. Several black books carry the name Cyprianus.

Now take this book. As I said, it has been waiting for you (...) You see, the one who owned it is dead. That's why it has been sitting here for years, and no one has missed it. And it is a sad fate for such an interesting book. (...) But remember: This is not a toy, so be careful what you do, young lady... Be careful what you do...

Marianne gets a black book in her hands. The temptations are great for someone who has just moved and doesn't fit in anywhere. But it is far from safe to cross the boundary to the dead. Especially when the dead have an unyielding will and hunger to cast new curses over the world of the living...

***

"The reader is kept in constant suspense..." - Barnebokkritikk.no

***

«"Icy dread in Myriam H. Bjerkli's children's book debut. The atmosphere of unease permeates the book. The author vividly portrays the evil forces at play. An original, vibrant, and terrifying book for brave readers aged ten and up."n.» Aftenposten

Myriam H. Bjerkli

---

Myriam debuted as a children's book author with Gyldendal Publishing in 2007 and as a crime fiction author with LiV Publishing in 2017.

Today, she writes crime novels for Bonnier Publishing and is also the owner and managing director of Forlagshuset i Vestfold AS.

She has published a total of 12 books so far.

---

Myriam H. Bjerkli

www.bjerkli.no