Inghilda Tapio

Dreamland

Dreamland is a work of fiction that includes elements of Sámi mythology, traditional child-rearing practices, and superstition. The book is suitable for ages twelve and up. Litnor, Gáiiá and Máiiot are staying with their great-grandmother on the tundra during their summer break. Great-Grandmother is a very special person, and strange things already start happening not long after they arrive.

Inghilda Tapio

Inghilda Tapio has written children's books, poetry collections, short stories, film manuscripts and theater texts. Ulrika Tapio Blind has illustrated her books colorfully and decoratively, with beautiful images.
