Handbook for Master Thieves the World's Craziest Heists

You've seen them in the movies: master thieves who outsmart the world's sharpest alarms, steal priceless paintings, and vanish into thin air—without leaving a single trace. But who are the real master thieves?

Meet the man who stole Mona Lisa – the world's most famous painting. Discover the gang behind the world's biggest diamond heist, and the cat burglar known as Spider-Man. Read about the greatest bank robberies and the hundred-kilo gold coin that simply disappeared.

How did these thieves pull it off? What happened to the treasures they stole? And how did it all end for them? This book answers all this – and everything else you've ever wanted to know about the world of the master thief!
