Vilge the Wolf Pup

The book is written as a story, allowing us to get to know wolves in a completely different way than if we were to simply read a list of facts. The author has personified the wolves, making it easier to understand why the wolf can be humans' greatest enemy – and why humans can also be the greatest enemy of the wolf.

Ellen Anne Sara Gaup is from Máze, in Kautokeino municipality. She was born and married into a reindeer herding family. A licensed educator and teacher, she believes in the importance of children engaging with stories that offer valuable lessons. In this way, she carries on the Sámi storytelling tradition through her children's books, the first of which was published in 2007. Her first non-fiction book for children – Miesážis rávis boazun (From Little to Big: The Life Cycle of the Reindeer) – was published in 2021.
