Fantus and the Tools

The charming little Fantus is known from NRK Super and is a favourite among young children.

In this book, Fantus will build a house for the birds. On the tool board hangs everything needed. Fantus must saw, hammer, drill, paint, and screw while the blue birds watch eagerly.

The book has a large fold-out flap on every page that the child can open, providing a pleasant reading experience for both big and small.

Fantus spreads joy and is sweet and lovable. Fantus is around one year old and can say some words, but mostly speaks baby language. Fantus brings life and excitement to the family with his exploration of the world!
