

Figenschou 2026

199 pages

Original title: Det mørke nettet: Den hvite varebilen

ISBN: 9788284310602

FOREIGN RIGHTS

World Rights: Figenschou Publishing, please contact Anitra Figenschou, e-mail anitra@figenschouforlag.no, phone 0047 92606318, Address: Tromsogata 21, 0565 Oslo, Norway.

AWARDS

Hanne Gjerde won the Book Devourer Prize in 2024 for her novel The Eternity Game, an award in which around 120,000 primary and lower secondary school students take part in reading and voting for the best book of the year.

In 2025, she was once again nominated for the Book Devourer Prize with Mr. AI, which is one of the super-finalists in the 2026 edition of the award.

OTHER TITLES

Mr. AI, 2024

The Eternity Game, 2022

The Wishing Machine, 2019

The Magic Doll Factory, 2018

Best Friend in a Can, 2017

Hanne Gjerde

The Dark Web: White Van

A thriller that will take your breath away!

Lukas is home alone with his little sister, Mille. He's gaming with Storm, a boy he's recently met online. While they're playing, Lukas vents about how annoyed he is with his little sister. Storm offers to help him get rid of her. Lukas thinks it's a joke and replies, "Ha ha, I wish."

The next day, his little sister is gone ...

Lukas is faced with the most difficult and dangerous challenge of his life. He has 48 hours to save her. The countdown has already begun.

From award-winning author Hanne Gjerde.

This book should be made into a movie!

-- Mattis, age 13

I was hit right in the heart ...

-- Ingrid, age 14

There was nothing I didn't like about this story.

-- Håkon, age 10

Hanne Gjerde

Author Hanne Gjerde (born 1972) works as a lawyer at the Norwegian Ministry of Children and Families. In her writing, she often explores the relationship between humans and machines. Hanne Gjerde won the Book Devourer Prize in 2024 for her novel The Eternity Game, an award in which around 120,000 primary and lower secondary school students take part in reading and voting for the best book of the year.

In 2025, she was once again nominated for the Book Devourer Prize with Mr. AI, which is one of the super-finalists in the 2026 edition of the award.

Figenschou forlag

figenschouforlag.no/