Strange Sea

Do you know someone who tells you fairy tales and stories? Magnus does. Áddjá tells all kinds of stories. Magnus has discovered that people throw rubbish into the sea, and then it washes up on land. He talks to Áddjá about this. And then Áddjá tells him about the sea's mother. That night, Magnus has a strange dream.

Beate Heide, Nina Marie Andersen (ill.)

Beate Heide (b. 1959) is a Sámi author who writes in Norwegian. Her first book was published in 2015. Imašlaš áhpi - Underlig hav (Strange Sea) is her sixth children's book.
