Jørgen Jæger

The Concealment

Police chief Ole Vik travels to Drammen to assist detective Cecilie Hopen, who has been asked to identify the body of her partner Bernhard. Found in the river, his belongings by the waterfront, the police suspect Bernhard of having committed suicide. The plot takes a new turn when the body turns out to be someone else. So what has happened to Bernhard? In their pursuit of answers, Ole Vik and Cecilie Hopen are dragged into an underground network filled with heinous acts of human trafficking, violence and prostitution. The Concealment is the ninth book in the series about Ole Vik and Cecilie Hopen.

«Another good novel by Jæger... As always packed with suspenseful action... Jæger is incredibly skilled at separating action scenes and characterizing people using few words.»

Stavanger

Aftenblad

«Jørgen Jæger has written an excellent action-packed novel. With The Concealment, the author delivers a superb and intense story that sends shivers down the spine ...

Jørgen Jæger

---

Jørgen Jæger is one of Norway's best-selling crime authors. Last year he sold one book every fourth minute, making him the third most sold Norwegian crime author. Set in the picturesque remote town of Fjellberghavn, the highly respected police chief Ole Vik and his adept detective Cecilie Hopen is constantly dragged into investigations riddled with social dilemmas, which Jørgen Jæger eloquently incorporates.

Critically acclaimed Jæger is highly renowned among booksellers, and has been nominated to the prestigious Norwegian bookseller award three times.
