The Park

Sometimes both children and adults need a break from the chores of everyday life. Then it might be nice to have a park nearby where you can relax, play and let your mind wander. This book is such a park – a surreal world where anything can happen. This park is inhabited by many strange creatures and people – animals, colorful birds, an owl, dragons and philosophers. Here is also a poetry loving park ranger, shrubs you can hide behind and a kiosk that sells dreams and all things imaginable.
