Anna Fiske

Grandnana

Lukas visits his Great-Grandma in the nursing home. She is 90 years older than him, and Lukas is curious about her life and experiences. They talk about everything she has felt, seen and done. Illustrated in Anna Fiske's characteristic style, the book is a burlesque, slightly melancholic journey through a long life.

Grandnana is an excellent inspiration for conversation with children, but it can also be a useful tool for people who find reading challenging, as well as for language-learners. The text is accessible, and has received funding from a Norwegian organization working towards making literature accessible for everyone, Leser søker bok (Reader seeks book).

Anna Fiske

Anna Fiske (b. 1964) is an illustrator, picture book author, cartoonist, and fine artist. Her playful, characteristic drawings, and her innovative work within the field of children's books, have won her many awards and great acclaim.
