Come on, let's run

Come on, let's run!

A fast-paced story told in pictures about two unruly boys who can't sit still, but at wild speed run through a number of fun situations, while the line of persecutors is getting longer and longer.

Come on, let's run was awarded the prize for the Best picture book of the Ministry of Education, it was also voted the Book of the Year and rewarded with gold in the category picture books in "The Most Beautiful Books of the Year». A Norwegian classic that we have recently reprinted.

A companion book to Lars Fiske's Full speed with grandfather. The two books have the same format and aesthetics.

Lars Fiske

Lars Fiske was educated as an illustrator and graphic designer at Konstfack in Stockholm, and Otis Parsons in Los Angeles, 1988-92.
