

Harald Nordberg

Robin's travels

Robin and his dad are out driving on dad's motorbike when the engine shuts down. They have to seek shelter in the nearest roundabout. And somehow they stay put – because the roundabout proves to be an interesting place and a home to both people and animals.

Robin's Travels is an enchanting and mythical story with many references to international children's books.

Aschehoug 2010
48 pages
Original title: Robins reise

Aschehoug 2010

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Aschehoug Agency
P.O. Box 363 Sentrum
NO-0102 Oslo
Tel: + 47 22 40 03 58
Fax: +47 22 20 63 95
epost@aschehougagency.no
www.aschehougagency.no

Harald Nordberg

Harald Nordberg is an internationally awarded illustrator having illustrated and written several books for children. Nordberg is both the writer and illustrator of Robin's Travels.

Oslo Literary Agency

osloliteraryagency.no/